SUBJECT: ATTEMPT TO INTERVIEW VICTIM [REDACTED]

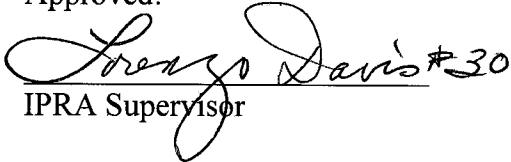

On 29 January 2012, at approximately 1910 hours, the Reporting Investigator, accompanied by Investigators Corely and Deveau, attempted to obtain the statement of victim [REDACTED] at the Central Detention Lockup. [REDACTED] declined to give an interview, stating that he wished to wait because he was unsure if he wanted to cooperate with IPRA. [REDACTED] took an IPRA business card and stated that he would contact IPRA at a later date.

The Reporting Investigator asked [REDACTED] if he had a complaint regarding his arrest, specifically if he was physically maltreated. [REDACTED] stated that he was not "beaten" during his arrest. [REDACTED] stated that he was not injured and did not require medical attention. The Reporting Investigator observed no visible injury to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that the arresting officers went inside the property at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] after they handcuffed him and put him inside the car. [REDACTED] stated that the officers were inside the property for approximately five minutes.
